Reminder: Sign Up For Active Parenting Of Teens

There is still room for parents and caregivers with students in grades 7 to 12 to sign up for Manhasset CASA's Active Parenting for Teens at the Manhasset Public Library. The three parent education series, beginning Thursday, Oct. 29, at 10:30 a.m., will provide parents with practical tools to communicate effectively with teens to avoid power struggles and reduce the risks of the teen years. The series is sponsored by Senator Jack M. Martins and the Manhasset Public Library and will be facilitated by Tim Jahn, MEd of the Cornell Cooperative Extension's Family Health & Wellness Program. Space is limited and registration is required. To sign up, go to Manhasset CASA's website at www.manhassetcasa.org for the Signup Genius link.
