Live Holiday Music At LIRR Train Station

On Wednesday morning, Dec. 23, 2015, the Manhasset High School Brass Choir, a 10 member all-brass instrument musical ensemble, performed beautiful holiday classics for the commuters waiting for trains at the Manhasset Long Island Rail Road train station. The Brass Choir is an ensemble under the direction of Randy Knudsen, Director of Bands at Manhasset High School, and has brought heart-warming musical holiday cheer to the Manhasset LIRR train station commuters each December for the past few years. The students arrive early, and by 7:15 a.m., are performing for commuters waiting for the 7:27 a.m. train. They then continue to play for and delight train patrons who rode the 7:44 and 7:54 a.m. trains before heading off to school. The students also perform in the school lobby for students and faculty before the school's winter vacation.

Rd, Manhasset from 1 to 3 p.m. Documentation will not be required to enjoy the paintings, photography, weavings, pottery, beadwork, wampum and dance.
