2 p.m. - Live Music: St. Patrick's Day Program with The Paul Joseph Quartet

Join us for an enjoyable afternoon of St. Patrick's Day music with composer/pianist Paul Joseph and his jazz quartet. You'll hear inspiring instrumental jazz renditions of Irish favorites such as Danny Boy, When Irish Eyes are Smiling, Red Is the Rose, The Minstrel Boy and many others. The group has performed extensively the past several years doing a variety of composer-theme programs. Paul Joseph has previously performed all-original solo piano concerts throughout Long Island featuring works that have received wide critical acclaim in performances by distinguished regional orchestras, ballet companies and choirs. His dynamic rhythm section consists of drummer Mike Corn and bassist Edgar Mills, both seasoned performers. They will be joined by the mesmerizing violinist Susan Mitchell, one of New York City's finest musicians. Complimentary Refreshments courtesy of The Friends of the Manhasset Public Library. Manhasset residents are seated first, up to 15 minutes prior to the performance, then non-residents, space permitting. Location: Community Room
