

Independence: Aging In Place In Manhasset

The Town of North Hempstead's aging in place program, Project Independence, hosted more than 100 local seniors at the Company 1 Firehouse in Manhasset last Wednesday, June 10, for a Community Resource Fair.

This was the first fair of its kind to be held in Manhasset. The event offered seniors the opportunity to meet with representatives from more than a dozen organizations including AARP,

AAA, and North Shore-LIJ as well as nutritionists, and other professionals and community representatives. North Hempstead Town Supervisor Judi Bosworth, Councilwoman Anna Kaplan, Town Clerk Wayne Wink and Receiver of Taxes Charles Berman attended the event and encouraged those in attendance to take advantage of Project Independence services if they haven't already. To sign up for Project Independence, please call 311.

