

COMMUNITY CALENDAR

Wednesday, January 28

MP/SR Joint Parent Council Meeting

Evening meeting of all elementary school parents at 7:30 p.m. in the Munsey Park auditorium at 1 Hunt Lane in Munsey Park.

International Night

International Night will be held from 5 - 7 p.m. in the Secondary School Cafeteria. Admission is $5. Travel the world one plate at a time and learn about global diversity. Plenty of food will be provided.

Installation Luncheon

The Manhasset Chamber Of Commerce will be holding its annual installation luncheon at the Manhasset Bay Yacht Club at 12:30 p.m. For more information contact Nancy Morris at 516-365-2763.

Post-Christmas reflections on Gristmill Lane in Plandome Manor
(Photo by Steven Handelman)

Thursday, January 29

Property Assessment Grievance Workshop

Charles Berman, Town of North Hempstead Receiver of Taxes, presents a Property Assessment Grievance Workshop. He will briefly review the assessment process, explain how to fill out the grievance application and provide tips on filling out the form. Please bring your 2016/2017 Notice of Tentative Assessed Value that you received from the Nassau County Department of Assessment earlier this month. Staff members will be on hand with applications for your convenience. At 7 p.m. in the Community Room at Manhasset Public Library, 30 Onderdonk Ave.

Hoot's Chalk Talk

CASA in conjunction with Manhasset SCA and the Booster Club is sponsoring an awareness program explaining the danger of the appearance and performance enhancing drugs, energy drinks and dietary substances. Know more about energy drinks/shots, pre-workout supplements, human growth hormone, anabolic androgenic steroids, protein supplements, creatine, body image and self-esteem. Hooten Sr. and his family founded the Taylor Hooten Foundation following the loss of their son, a high school athlete who suffered the side effects of anabolic steroid use and withdrawal. Middle School and High School students meeting is at 3:30 p.m. at Manhasset High School auditorium. Parent meeting is 7:30 p.m. Free admission.

Friday, January 30

Lunch With The League

The League of Women Voters will be holding its annual state of the Town luncheon at the Harbor Links One Fairway Drive in Port Washington. The Honorable Judi Bosworth Supervisor, Town of North Hempstead presenting The State Of The Town Address. Registration begins at 11:15 - 11:45 a.m. Luncheon served at noon. State of Town Address at 1:15 p.m. Luncheon will be held regardless of weather conditions. For questions the day of the event, call 311 or 516-869-6311.

Saturday, January 31

Celebrate Music

Manhasset SEPTA is hosting an adaptive music party for special needs children for 4 to 7 year olds at Bach To Rock America's Music School from 2 until 3:30 p.m. Musical instrument petting zoo and exploration, music-n-movement and lots of hands-on percussion play. Join the party with fun musical activities, pizza, cake and goodie bags. The program is free but registration is required. Space is limited to 12 participants. Email manhassetsepta@gmail.com to sign up.

Monday, February 2

High School Winter Concert

The Manhasset Public Schools will perform its winter concert with the symphonic choir at Munsey Park auditorium at 8 p.m. The groups will perform Requiem by Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart.

Wednesday, February 4

Plandome Woman's Club

The Plandome Woman's Club will hold their February program, "Life is a Fortune Cookie" from 1:15 to 2:15 p.m. in Plandome Village Hall. This program will be run by Joe and June Viverito, rebel seniors who want to share their ways of turning your every day into a personal amusement park at any age as well as disarm a myriad of aging myths and challenges, transforming them into sheer belly laughs. This program is open to the public and for more information, please contact Lori Kearns at lorikearns@verizon.net.

Thriving Is A Lot Like Driving

Keeping Manhasset Healthy with MaryAnn Jones. If you know how to drive, then you know how to thrive. Learn how to fuel up for a healthy journey. Steer clear of road blocks toward your weight loss goals. Come to this program and get recipes, tips and encouragement to map out your success. This is a wellness program with Manhasset's own holistic nutritionist MaryAnn Jones offered free to the community. Registration is not required. At Manhasset Public Library at 2 p.m. in the Community Room.

Thursday, February 5

Board of Education Meeting

The Board of Ed will hold its regularly scheduled meeting at 8 p.m. at Manhasset High School. Go to the district website at www.manhasset.k12.ny.us/board.cfm for more information.

Saturday, February 7

SCA Family Theatre

The Family Theatre committee will present Miss Nelson is Missing!, 2 p.m. at Munsey Park auditorium. It is an opportunity for the children of the Manhasset community and families to be exposed to professional theatre productions of classic children's books. Advance ticket sales are $12 or you can purchase tickets at the door on the day of the show for $14.

Free Throw Competition

The Knights of Columbus Father William Daly Council#2122 will be holding its annual Free Throw Competition in Immaculata Hall Gym at 9 a.m. The competition is open to boys and girls ages 9 through 14. Prizes will be awarded to the winners of each age group. For more information contact John Vricella at 516-641-6139.

Celebrate Music

Manhasset SEPTA is hosting an adaptive music party for special needs children for 8 to 11 year olds at Bach To Rock America's Music School from 2 until 3:30 p.m. In-studio group vocal recording with CD to take home and live on-stage karaoke singing hits like "Happy", "Let It Go", and "Shake it off". Join the party with fun musical activities, pizza, cake and goodie bags. The program is free but registration is required. Space is limited to 12. Email manhassetsepta@gmail.com to sign up.

Please email Calendar items
two weeks in advance of this paper's Friday publication date to ejohnson@antonmediagroup.com